SECURITY

It is important that for the purpose of security you remain vigilant at all times. If you notice anything that, according to your judgment, may cause any difficulty or problem, inform the relevant department immediately. It is not advisable that you interfere personally.

When entering the Jalsa Gah, present yourselves voluntarily to the officers for verification.

Always keep your registration card visible

Take special care of your valuables and cash. This is your own responsibility. The organisers cannot be held responsible for any loss.

FOOD DISTRIBUTION

Meals are only served at designated area. Refrain from eating food elsewhere.

Once you finish your meals, please deposit your plates in the waste-bins that are provided. We should all undertake to keep the environment clean.

If you have any dietary requirement, please let the Nazim Ziafat know well in advance.

BOOKSTALL

The Ishaat department will operate a bookstall in the Jalsa Gah where various books and magazines will be on sale. Similar Arrangements exist on ladies' side.

LOST AND FOUND PROPERTY

For lost or found items, please report to the registration desk.

MOBILE PHONE

Please ensure that your mobile phones are either switched off or in silent mode during Jalsa.

CLEANLINESS

It is very important that all members pay due care to keep the place very clean.

Whosoever notices any litter should pick it up and deposit it in the litterbins or boxes provided for that purpose. It is the duty of everyone to keep the Jalsa site free of litter.

There are simple etiquettes of cleanliness that need to be observed. Remember to keep the toilets clean, after all, cleanliness is next to godliness.

ETIQUETTES OF THE MOSQUE

Remember the etiquette and sanctity of the place in and around the mosque. During the Jalsa, the marquees serve as mosques.

Please refrain from mingling with members of the opposite gender in any part of the compound of the Jalsa Gah.

Please respect the rules of purdah.

Purpose of Jalsa Salana

This is not a festival but a Jama'at convention. Do not think that you are participating in a festival and do not waste your time in personal meetings or in showing off latest fashions.

Greet each other with smiles. If you have any ill feelings end them with smiles in these days.

Spread good words and urge others to perform good deeds and tell them to desist from bad practices. After all, this is the prime purpose of Jalsa Salana.

Care should be taken that ladies and children sit and listen to the Jalsa proceedings quietly. Try to derive the maximum benefit from the Jalsa.

If your child is crying, the parent should comfort the child and take them outside the hall.

Blessings of Jalsa

If the blessings of Jalsa are kept in mind, then attendance on both days is essential. Listen to the programme in silence and with full attention.
