“The Aim of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community is to Establish Peace on Earth” (Mirza Masroor Ahmad)

38th United Kingdom Annual Convention- Opening Address

Hadhrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad, Supreme head of the Worldwide Ahmadiyya Muslim Community, opened the Ahmadiyya Muslim Convention by elaborating on the inherent benefits of the annual gathering. These three days are the period for Ahmadi Muslims all over the world where they gain spiritual training. Moreover, their knowledge is increased by listening to the speeches of learned Islamic scholars. He said that the aim of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community is ultimately to establish Peace on Earth.

He urged that one should never be despondent but adopt patience whenever difficulties in life arise because ease always comes to those who are ever inclined towards Allah. He advised that backbiting and ‘thinking ill of others’ create disharmony in society. Of all the vices, the worst one is untruthfulness, i.e. telling lies, which destroy the peaceful atmosphere in society. “The truthful are those who obey the commands of Allah and His Prophet Muhammad, peace and blessings be upon him, ” he said.

He continued: Pride, arrogance and haughtiness are all poisons to be totally shunned. Not fulfilling intentions, promises and agreements are also evils. All of them are poisons, which all Ahmadis should avoid. If every Ahmadi Muslim adopts the virtues and avoids the sins, a peaceful society can be established.

According to Mr. Rashid A Chaudhry, International Press Secretary of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community: “more than 20,000 people attended the Opening Session of the Convention.”
